

Ethical Issues in Real Estate and Construction Law Practice

Monday, June 15, 2009, 6:00 PM - 9:00 PM

Member Price: $125

Non-Member Attorney Price: $175

Location: 14 Vesey Street, 2nd Floor Auditorium

Course ID: C061509

Number of Sessions: 1

Credits: 3 MCLE Credits

3 MCLE Credits: 3 Ethics; transitional and Non-transitional

Course Description:

Using a series of hypotheticals, a panel consisting of a housing court judge, real estate and construction law experts and an ethicist will discuss how to deal with the ethical issues that arise in real estate and construction law practice - from litigation in housing court to issues with the Attorney General regarding getting condo offering plans approved.

CLICK HERE TO PRINT REGISTRATION FORM FOR MAIL OR FAX REGISTRATION OPTION.

Faculty:

Adam Leitman Bailey, Adam Leitman Bailey, PC; Professor Carol A. Buckler, New York Law School; Hon. Gerald Lebovits, NYC Housing Court; Carol Sigmond, Dunnington, Bartholow & Miller LLP

Program Chair: Carol Sigmond, Dunnington, Bartholow & Miller LLP

Program Co-Sponsor: NYCLA's Ethics Institute

Program Chair: Carol Sigmond, Dunnington, Bartholow & Miller LLP; Chair, NYCLA Construction Law Committee