Dear Adam,

I just came off the best work experience of my life. I came to your firm knowing very little about the law, but everybody at the firm was helpful in teaching me what they knew and helping me along. I learned a lot from the internship from shadowing different members of the firm in court, watching a trial develop, and reading deposition abstracts. In particular the time you spent with me was motivating and a good guide for my life in the future. I entered the internship unsure of what I wanted to do with my life, but it has made me positive that I want to go to law school at some point in the future.

The culture you have managed to create in your office is extraordinary. I have worked in office environments before and you have managed to cultivate an inspiring workplace. Everyone feels like a family and they welcomed me in with open arms.

I also enjoyed working on your book. I know the book will be a best-seller and win the Pulitzer and I was proud to be involved in the editing process. I feel as if I wanted to right now I would have the knowledge to find an uncommon deal on a home. Please let me know when you start signing books in Barnes and Nobles.

I appreciate your generous offer to provide guidance in the future. I plan to keep in touch and take you up on your offer. Thank you for all the experiences this internship opened me.

Best Wishes,
Justin [REDACTED]
