In their reviews peers called Mr. Metz "one of the finest attorneys" they have ever worked with who consistently impresses with "his thoughtfulness, his knowledge of the law, and perhaps most importantly, his judgment." Another peer stated that he has "keen analytical skills, good judgment and excellent communication abilities that have served him so well professionally." In another review a private practice lawyer states, "His appellate writing skills are the best I have seen in my 30 years of practicing law."

"Martindale-Hubbell Peer Review Ratings were created in 1887 as an objective tool that would attest to a lawyer's ability and professional ethics, based on the confidential opinions of other lawyers and judges who have worked with the lawyers they are evaluating," said Mike Walsh, President and CEO, U.S. Legal Markets at LexisNexis. "The Martindale-Hubbell Peer Review Ratings have remained the most prestigious and widely respected lawyer rating system in the world for over a hundred years."
