

John M. Desiderio to be Inducted into the Holy Cross High School's Hall of Fame

Holy Cross High School celebrates the rich tradition and history of the "Holy Cross Man" by selecting alumni, parents, alumni parents, and friends to be honored at the Hall of Fame Dinner held during the fall of each year.

Hall of Fame inductees are Individuals who have demonstrated a significant level of achievement in one or more of the following areas: public service, government, religion, athletics, education, science and medicine, the arts, law, finance. Their philanthropy and/or volunteerism to Holy Cross and their community reflects the service philosophy of the School.

John M. Desiderio is a member of the Holy Cross High School Class of '59. Mr. Desiderio is one of 7 individuals who will be inducted into the 2013 Hall of Fame on Saturday, November 16, 2013 during a formal induction ceremony followed by dinner.

Father Walter E. Jenkins, President of Holy Cross High School, said in a letter that Mr. Desiderio's "personal and professional achievements as well as your service to others and to Holy Cross High School, have inspired the Nominating Committee to select you for membership among this esteemed and honored group of men and women."

Holy Cross High School is a Catholic college preparatory school in Flushing, New York that educates the hearts and minds of young men following the educational and spiritual vision of the Congregation of Holy Cross.

John M. Desiderio has been a partner at Adam Leitman Bailey, P.C. since 2004. In that time, he has been involved in some of the most important and high profile real estate cases of the decade.
